

JONNY HARRIS' comedy has been showcased in every medium at the highest levels across the country. As a stand-up comedian he has appeared regularly at The Halifax Comedy Festival. On Radio he has been featured several times on CBC's Madly Off in All Directions and frequently does commentaries for Definitely no the Opera. He has been a guest writer for the award-winning This Hour has 22 Minutes and was a contributing writer for Mary Walsh's Hatching Matching and Dispatching. Jonny is a founding member of St. John's sketch comedy troupe The Dance Party of Newfoundland who have featured on national radio and television. His one man show Out of the Bog, directed by Andy Jones has enjoyed success from St. John's to Victoria and was the highest grossing production for The Resource Centre for the Arts in 2003. Harris is shooting for CHUM's The Murdoch Mysteries where he plays the principle role of Constable George Crabtree.