

SNOOK/Pete Soucy BIO

Heeeeer's SNOOK, Pete Soucy's street-smart "corner boy" character from downtown St. John's, Newfoundland.

Quick-talking and fun-loving, SNOOK has entertained thousands on stage, radio, and TV for 15 years now. A regular on CBC's Canada Now, Lorne Elliot's Madly Off in All Directions, and the Halifax Comedy Festival, Snook has also hosted his own variety series Wicked Night Out.

An extensive 'gig-list' includes several major ad campaigns, special events, and dozens of corporate functions every year. After two successful home-video releases, Snook's Christmas CD proved equally popular, and a DVD is currently in the works.

Pete Soucy as "SNOOK"

Pete Soucy

Peter Soucy has been writing, acting, designing, and directing for stage, radio, and television since 1986. He is a graduate of the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design, and taught secondary school Visual Arts for several years. FLUX, the most successful of his four stage-plays, has been published, performed in several provinces and states, and adapted for television.

Peter won a Newfoundland and Labrador Arts Council Award in 1985, was Chair of the Council from 1998-2000, co-founded Day Job Theatre in 1987, and won the Kari Award for best performance in a Canadian television commercial in 1996. He recently concluded a three-year appointment as Artistic Director of Rebel Island Theatre and the NaGeira Theatre Festival in Carbonear and is currently working on a TV pilot.